The Living Library

Dokk1, awarded the world's best public library, becomes a Living Library

11.15–13.15

Where: Torvet / level 1/ next to the Information Desk

Dokk1, awarded the world's best public library, becomes a Living Library during Aarhus City Welcome.

At the Living Library, you can borrow a person who has made Aarhus home and who would love to inspire you in your pursuit of doing the same.

You will meet truly inspiring and experienced internationals from around the globe.

So, choose your 'book', have a seat in the lounge, grab a piece of chocolate, and have a chat!

The Living Library is presented by:

Citizen Service, The International Employment Unit, HEADSTART, and International Staff at Aarhus University.

EXPERIENCE SPACE

Where: Level 2 / By the staircase leading up to the Children's Library

10.00–14.00 Challenge your family and friends for a game of curling on Aarhus Curling Club's transportable curling rink. Find out who manages to get the stones closest to the target – known as the House.

11.30–12.00 Enjoy a short performance of flamenco by La Caña and try out the beautiful dance yourself!

CHILDREN'S CORNER

Where: Level 2 / Next to the staircase leading up to the Children's Library

10.00–14.00 Participate in exciting games and get creative! International students of pedagogy at VIA University College have created the Children's Corner dedicated to the kids joining Aarhus City Welcome. You'll have plenty of opportunity to play and have lots of fun!

WHEEL OF FORTUNE

Where: Next to the elevators at level 1

10.00–14.00 (or as long as there are prizes to win). Test your knowledge about Denmark, Aarhus and the Danes to win great prizes for the culture scene of Aarhus including free tickets to: ARoS, The Old Town, KØN – Gender Museum Denmark, The Concert Hall, Bora Bora, The Natural History Museum, and Moesgaard Museum.

TREASURE HUNT

Where: Next to the elevators at level 1

10.00–13.30 This treasure hunt will take you around a selection of stands at The Information Bazar. Guess the correct answers, collect letters, and create the correct sentence. The winner is announced at Speaker's Corner at 13.45 in Store sal. You must be present in Store sal to claim your prize.
